Subject: Your congregation's history

The MidAmerica Region (UUA) History and Heritage Committee is working with the UU History and Heritage Society to gather congregational histories from all the Region. Eventually the scope will be expanded to all of North America.

We intend to gather these histories into a database that will be accessible to all. Such a resource will be helpful in strategizing for denominational growth and in other ways. Perhaps most importantly, it will help our member congregations get to know each other better.

I did not find a history on the Web site of the UU Congregation of Grand Traverse. Is there anything off line? We are quite interested in small congregations like yours, since there are many such in the denomination.

The MidAmerica Committee and the UU History and Heritage Society have a number of resources that guide the writing of congregational history, and we will gladly share them if you plan to undertake writing your history.

We hope to hear from you.
